CORRIDOR PARTNERSHIP PLAN for the

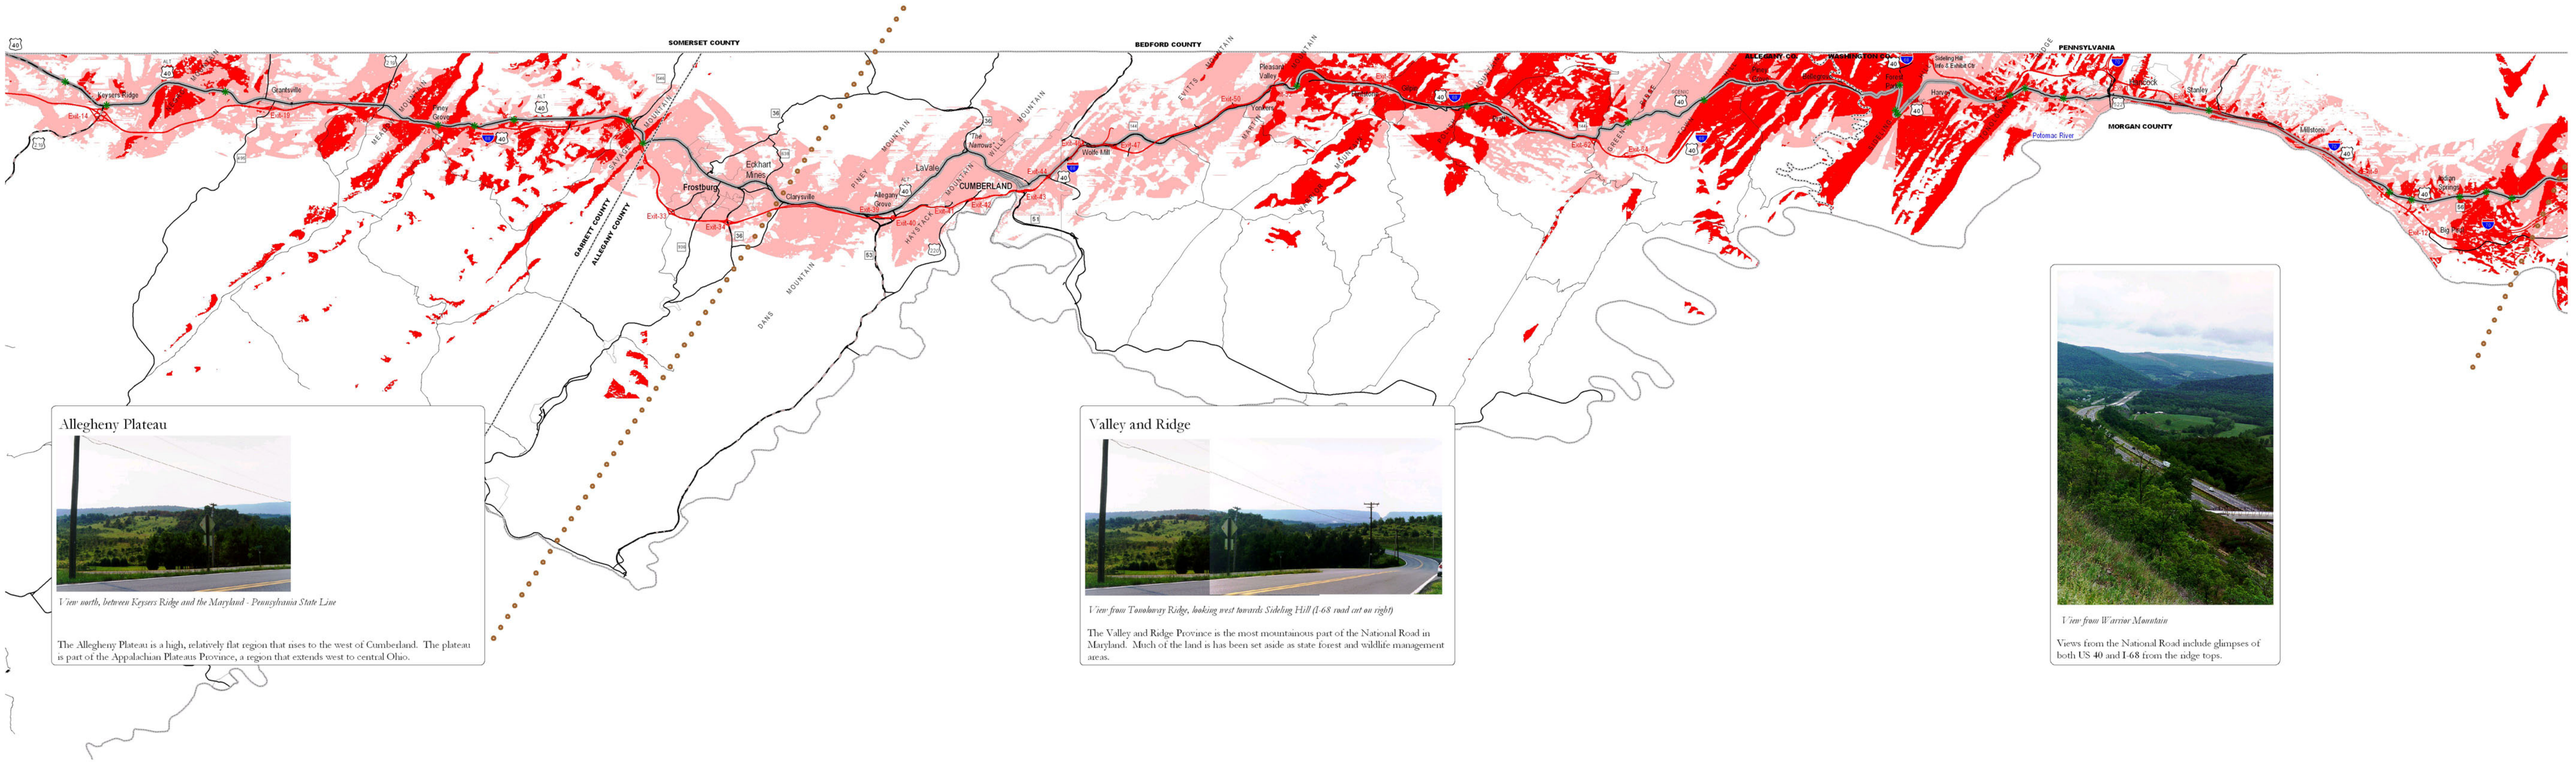
National Road in Maryland

Corridor Definition

Map 1 of 2

ALLEGHENY PLATEAU

VALLEY AND RIDGE



View north, between Keysers Ridge and the Maryland - Pennsylvania State Line

The Allegheny Plateau is a high, relatively flat region that rises to the west of Cumberland. The plateau is part of the Appalachian Plateaus Province, a region that extends west to central Ohio.

View from Tonoloway Ridge, looking west towards Sideling Hill (I-68 road cut on right)

The Valley and Ridge Province is the most mountainous part of the National Road in Maryland. Much of the land is has been set aside as state forest and wildlife management areas.

View from Warrior Mountain

Views from the National Road include glimpses of both US 40 and I-68 from the ridge tops.

Corridor Definition Map Legend

Roads

- The National Road
- Interstate
- Maryland Primary Road
- Maryland Secondary Road
- Street, Municipal Road

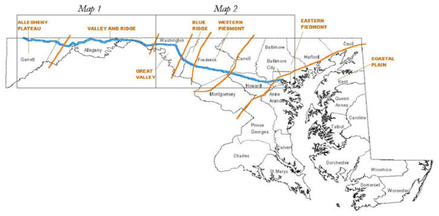
Boundaries

- State
- County
- Municipal
- Physiographic Province Boundary (Approximate)

Scenic Resources

- Locations of High Quality Views
- High Quality Viewshed
  Ten-mile limit for panoramic and high quality views. Does not incorporate screening effects of vegetation and/or development
- Lands Visible from National Road
  Two-mile limit. Does not incorporate screening effects of vegetation and/or development

Map Sheet Locator



N W E S

0 5 10 Miles

Data Sources: MdProperty View (Distributed by Maryland Department of Planning), Maryland State Highway Administration, Maryland Department of Natural Resources, Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development

Lardner/Klein Landscape Architects, P.C. in association with JOHN MILNER ASSOCIATES DANIEL CONSULTANTS, INC. BAY AREA ECONOMICS SHELLEY MASTRAN SALLY OLDHAM COMPASS